

Who's Who in FBLA

Special Recognition

(Does not count as a competitive event)

THERE IS NO RLC COUNTERPART FOR THIS EVENT.

The Who's Who in FBLA distinction is a high honor bestowed upon a local chapter member for outstanding contributions to their local or state Future Business Leaders of America chapter. Each chapter is encouraged to select a member for this special award.

Eligibility

- All active local chapters are eligible to submit the name of ONE individual to receive this distinction. State officers are automatically entered to receive this recognition and do not count as their chapter's nominee.
- Participants must not have placed first in this event at a previous SLC or represented Wisconsin in this event at a NLC.
- A member may enter only one individual or team event and one chapter event. A member may enter only one individual or team event and one chapter event. Who's Who in FBLA and Future Business Educator does not count as an event.
- A member may be submitted for this distinction and choose not to "compete" for the Wisconsin Who's Who classification.

To compete for the Wisconsin Nominee for National Who's Who distinction, entries must be submitted online at <https://wisconsinfbla.wufoo.com/forms/wisconsin-fbla-whos-who-in-fbla/> or accessed by scanning the following QR Code:

Regulations

- The nominee should be selected in accordance with the rules and regulations of the state and national guidelines.
- A Who's Who candidate MUST have completed the FUTURE level of the Business Achievement Awards System.
- All Who's Who candidates in attendance at the SLC will be recognized at the conference.
- All state officers are automatically listed as Wisconsin's Who's Who. It is, therefore, permissible and recommended that a state officer chapter select an additional nominee.
- Resumes will be reviewed by the State Office for adherence to the stated criteria for nomination. The selection of the Wisconsin nominee to the National Who's Who will be based upon the rating sheet. In addition, the local adviser's self-composed statement validating the information contained in the resume must be received. Statistics will be verified by the State Office records.
- A panel of judges will rate nominees and select the top five deserving state recognition.
- The individual selected as the first-place winner in this event becomes Wisconsin's entry for national recognition as our state winner.
- Local Who's Who winners should be honored at the chapter's banquet, recognition assembly or other activity and will receive recognition at SLC.
- All resumes and rating sheets will be returned.

- It is not required that a chapter's nominee be in attendance at the SLC. In addition, it is not required that Wisconsin's Who's Who candidate for national recognition be in attendance at the national conference.

Pre-Conference Requirements

- A resume identifying the individual's involvement as specified in the criteria must be prepared. The resume must be prepared in a standard resume format. The activities section must follow the headings shown on the rating sheet. This resume may exceed the one- to two-page restriction.
- The local adviser must sign a self-composed statement validating the information contained in the resume. This should not be a letter of recommendation but rather a statement confirming the information. The student is disqualified from the event if the adviser's validation is not submitted.
- The resume and adviser letter of validation for the chapter's nominee must arrive at the State Office by the first Wednesday in March.
- State officers are not required to submit a resume or register for this event; however, if a state officer wishes to be considered for selection as Wisconsin's candidate for state competition, a resume must be submitted and the state officer must register for this event.
- State judges will base their selection of Wisconsin's nominee for National Who's Who on the criteria stated in the National Guidelines.
